CSU Library
Donor Information

The Cleveland State University Library appreciates very much your offer to donate material. Our collection has been greatly enhanced by such donations. The Library will determine the suitability for addition to the collection of all donated materials. Materials not added to the collection will be placed in the Friends of the Library book sale, donated to other libraries, sold, or discarded.

If you would like an acknowledgment of your gift, please fill in below. The Library does not provide appraisals or evaluations of gifts. If you have questions about donations, please call (216) 687-2481.

Name: ___________________________________________________

Address: __________________________________________________

___________________________________________________

___________________________________________________

___________________________________________________